“given choice between complexity or one on one against t-rex, grug take t-rex: at least grug see t-rex”

Summary

Educated as a Mathematical Physicist, ended up trying to teach an AI quantum mechanics but failed subtly. “Quit school” after my master and did Embedded programming, soon I ended up writing back-end Scala and Typescript. Currently creating scalable and resilient systems in the cloud using MongoDB, Redis, and Golang.

In my spare time, I mostly cook, walk, read, and tinker with computers. My natural habitat is in Emacs using Linux, but to bring home shiny rocks to pay for dog food I am very often seen on a mac. If you think <https://grugbrain.dev> is hilarious and true, lets talk!
